

Using custom lists/properties: Adding custom properties to a test run

Thursday, 10 January 2019 11:18 AM

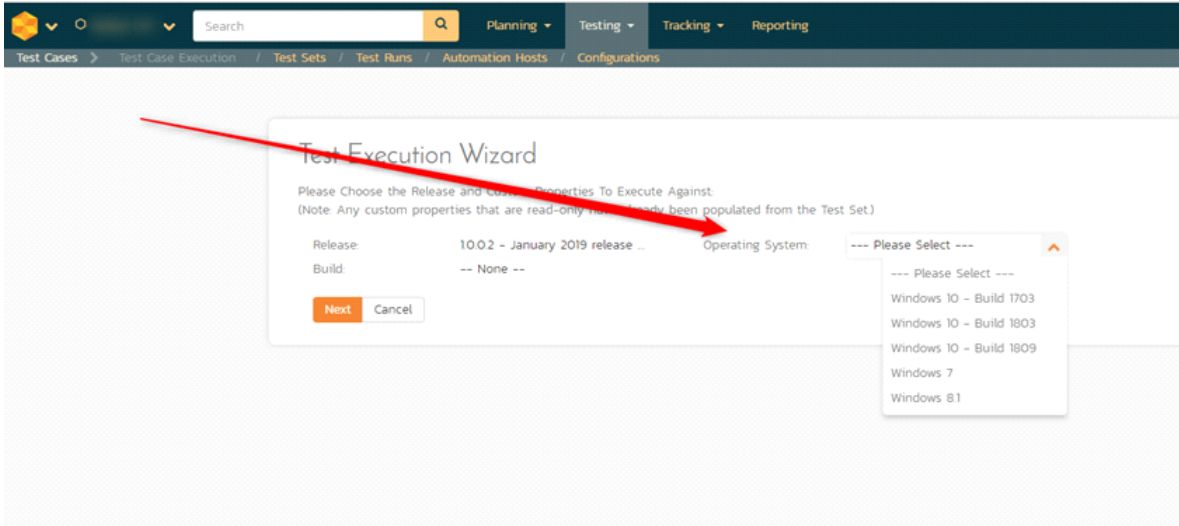

1) Create a custom list of the OSes

2) Create a custom property that uses the list created. Set the custom property type to "List" and choose your previously created list. Make sure you select the Artefact Type as "Test Run" (this has tripped me up before, I forget to set that dropdown and add the property to something else facepalm)

3) Now when you execute a test case directly OR from a test set, you will see that custom property ("Operating System" in our case) filled with the choices from your list. Voila! The column can also be shown on the Test Runs screen and in reports

Displaying 1 - 12 out of 12 test run(s) for this project.
